--Daniel 10:13

Wrath of the Lamb: The fall of the Communist Empire of China

Abbadon's Locusts, The Giant Nephilim, The Winged Leopard, Sea Leviathan, The Fiery Behemoth, and The Mystic Unicorn: Six of the Demonic Chimera Beasts have fallen by Ariel's Heavenly Sword...

Yet one still remains, the most powerful one: The Ancient Dragon: The source of China's New World Order's Power.

For what seems like endless years, under Xi Jing Ping's rule, The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) has been torturing, killing and selling the organs of Christians, Buddists, Uyghur Muslims and anyone whom dissent to their tyrannical rule...

As a fellow human, you would think governments would do everything in their power to stop such human suffering, but nah... nations turned a blind eye in order to rack up profits.

Who cares about the 12 year old child slave Apple worker (with suicide net) who is forced to work 18 hours a day just to make 2 dollars a day? You got your latest IPhone right? It was the attitude of the western consumers...

No one cares... except God, creator of the Universe. Everytime a soul dies, he laments its fading, for he is all true love and empathy... God has finally decided to do what humans cowardly didn't do for almost a century: End the CCP!!

Ariel spreads his wings and descends into Beijing, Corrupt Capital of China...

Corrupt Capital of Beijing (Main Dungeon)

"Ariel!! You have just landed in the center of Beijing... a few kilometers from you lies the Presidential Palace. Intel from Michael and The Seven Archangels say Xi Jing Ping is trying to awaken The Ancient Dragon." --says Stella to Ariel (you player).

"Its been almost 100 years... Xi Jing Ping was around 50 years old when he became China's President for life... how come he is still alive!?" -- responds Ariel to Stella.

"I checked the book of death (book of those whom died not believing in Jesus Christ) personally and I saw Xi Jing Pings name there. Pretty sure Xi is dead... have no idea why China insists in him being alive... perhaps to keep a strong image by claiming he's immortal!?" -- replies Stella.

"Nonsense! I guess I will have to find out as I storm through the Palace myself!" --says Ariel as he draws a straight-sword made of heavenly light.

"Ariel! Steel yourself!! No more sneaking in like we did in North Korea a while back... burst through, full force! into the presidential Palace and prevent the awakening of The Ancient Dragon at all costs!"

"Under 'The Wrath of the Lamb' decree, you have permission from God himself to take out all enemy resistance, through any means, as long as you don't end their lives!" --says Stella.

* New Interference Attacks Unlocked!! *

Ariel flies through Beijing, fighting an endless swarm of CCP soldiers, beating them into oblivion and uncounciousness...

He then finally enters the Presidential Palace...

The Palace is full of Chinese Super Soldiers, men augmented by nano-machines who are fearless and ruthless and can prevail a fight in any circumstance...

Ariel, as an Angel of God, defeats them easily and proceeds forward until he reaches the top floor of the Palace. There, a group of elite CCP assassins greet him by drawing their chinese mechanical scimitars.

"You shall not pass!!" --scream one of the Elite Soldiers.

"I don't have time for this... now move!!" --responds Ariel.

"Not a chance in fucking hell!!" --say one of the soldiers, then everyone attacks Ariel full force.

Ariel defeats all of them, because humans just can't deal with Angels can they?

"You claim Xi Jing Ping is alive. Why!?" --Ariel asks one of the soldiers injured.

"You don't fucking believe me? He is! Right behind this door!!" --responds the soldier.

"Alright..." --says Ariel as he walks inside the Presidential Chamber.

In front of him are a bunch of computers, in the monitor Xi Jing Ping is seen, speaking, giving all sorts of orders to soldiers and such...

After dying, Xi Jing Ping has transferred his counciousness into a computer, while his soul has truly died and registered in the book of death in Heaven, his image continues to give orders and run the CCP.

Ariels finds himself in front of computers...

"Thats what humans think, they can just transfer their conciousness into computers and live forever... so wrong. No one comes to live forever to the father but through grace from his son Jesus Christ, my lord!!" --says Ariel.

"Detecting non-human combatant trying to destroy China. Engaging!!" --says the computer.

Xi Jing Ping: China's Immortal Leader (Boss)

Ariel fights and destroys the computer easily, by cutting all the plugs...

He then heads into the basement of the Palace where The Ancient Dragon is sleeping...

"Oh great Dragon, our nation has been decimated by beings of The Sixth Dimension... take our souls as sacrifice and face our enemy!!"
--say the three Chinese Occult Priests, as their souls get consumed by the Dragon.

The Ancient Dragon awakens...

Ariel arrives at the scene, perhaps a tad late, for The Ancient Dragon has gone airstream and is ready to destroy the World!

"I have failed! The Ancient Dragon is fully operational and has begun flying!! Darn it..."
--says Ariel as he spreads his wings, ready to confront it, then...

Orobas - Fallen Principality / The Prince of Persia (Boss)

A powerful Fallen Angel appears out of nowhere, it is Orobas, fallen Principality, known as the Prince of Persia...

"Orobas... I heard of you... you are 'The Prince of Persia'. You held Gabriel for 28 days before Michael defeated you." --says Ariel.

"Yes. Same one, Angel of God. To think a single Angel from Heaven can single handedly defeat the CCP is unbelievable for humans, but not us Angels for we are part of the cosmic war between good and evil..." --responds Orobas, fallen Principality, known as The Prince of Persia.

"You have been behind The CCPs Power just like you did back in Persia... for we not wrestle against blood, but fallen princes, powers and spirits of evil!" --responds Ariel.

"Yes you do fight against us. Enough talk, fight!!" --responds Orobas as he draws an Spear of Darkness and points it at Ariel...

Orobas flies and tries to pierce Ariel to death with his precise strikes. Ariel barely avoids them, as as powerful as he is, he isn't as strong as the higher hierachy of Angels...

"Fallen Angel, Prince of Persia, feel the Wrath of the Lamb, the rage of my lord Jesus Christ!!" -- screams Ariel as he endlessly fights The Prince of Persia.

Ariel and Orobas fight on an on but ultimately Orobas defeats Ariel then a burst of Heavenly energy happens and Archangel Michael appears in the scene...

"Michael... how long has it been?" --says Orobas to Michael, The Seventh Archangel.

"Its been long enough you have been alive and well after our duel in the days of Daniel. Now be defeated, under my sword of Light, in the name of Jesus Christ, our lord!!" --screams Michael as he deploys his Heavenly Greatsword.

Michael and Orobas fight to the death and after a long ardous fight, Michael becomes victorius... so Ariel ascends the skies and confronts The Ancient Dragon.

The Ancient Dragon (Main Boss)

(Final Demonic Chimera Beast)
